

Linda Bacco

Linda has been involved with dogs most of her life. When she began training her long-coated Siberian husky along with her boxer, she first learned about and loved the interaction of dog and handler. After moving to Connecticut, Linda and her husband Sam acquired their first Akita. During the next 14 years, the hobby of dogs grew into a professional interest, ranging from competition in the breed ring to basic obedience, agility, Canine Good Citizen and Delta Therapy Dog titles.

Linda has titled six AKC breed Champions, as well as Canadian Kennel Club, United Kennel Club and North American Kennel Club Champions. Nine of her dogs have earned their Canine Good Citizenship titles and six have acquired their Delta Therapy Dog titles. Linda is a member of the Association of Pet Dog Trainers (APDT) and is an AKC Canine Good Citizen Evaluator.
